MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Richard Seamon, of OIR in the Department of State, has just returned from a trip to Europe. While he was in Germany, one American, unidentified, told him that he had heard attributed to the Secretary of State a remark to the effect that even if the French did not ratify EDC, the US would take no part in and/or was opposed to the rearmament of Germany. Another American, also unidentified, told Seamon the same thing and attributed the remark to [REDACTED]
